

All humanity is divided into two camps. This division is clearly delineated in Scripture. Everyone is either in Christ or in Adam (1 Cor. 15:22); all are either in Christ or outside of Christ (Col. 4:5).

All either have the Son or do not have the Son, have life or do not have life (1 John 5:11-12). Everyone on earth is either a believer or an unbeliever (John 3:18,36), righteous or unrighteous (1 Cor. 6:9-11), justified or condemned (Rom. 3:24; John 3:18). Every person is either holy and set apart (1 Cor. 1:2) or unclean and filthy (Rev. 22:11).

All are either children of God or children of the devil (1 John 3:10). Each individual is either saved or unsaved (1 Cor. 1:18). Everyone is either free or enslaved (John 8:32-36). The choice could not be clearer: believe or perish (John 3:16); repent or perish (Luke 13:3,5). The minority is on the narrow road that leads to life; the majority is on the broad road that leads to destruction (Matt. 7:13-14).

Every person is either indwelt by the Holy Spirit, or he does not belong to God at all (Rom. 8:9). Every sinner has either been quickened or made alive in Christ or is still dead in sins (Eph. 2:1-5). The sinner either has his sins forgiven, or he has his sins retained (Eph. 1:7; John 20:23). Every person either has an endless hope (Tit. 1:2) or a hopeless end (Prov. 11:7).

Every individual will have an eternal home prepared by God or will suffer in the place prepared for the devil and his angels (John 14:3; Matt. 25:41).

Which camp are you a part of? Everyone is invited to be part of the glorious company of the redeemed (Rev. 22:17).

† Dear friend, do you know for sure which group you are in? †

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org

All humanity is divided into two camps. This division is clearly delineated in Scripture. Everyone is either in Christ or in Adam (1 Cor. 15:22); all are either in Christ or outside of Christ (Col. 4:5).

All either have the Son or do not have the Son, have life or do not have life (1 John 5:11-12). Everyone on earth is either a believer or an unbeliever (John 3:18,36), righteous or unrighteous (1 Cor. 6:9-11), justified or condemned (Rom. 3:24; John 3:18). Every person is either holy and set apart (1 Cor. 1:2) or unclean and filthy (Rev. 22:11).

All are either children of God or children of the devil (1 John 3:10). Each individual is either saved or unsaved (1 Cor. 1:18). Everyone is either free or enslaved (John 8:32-36). The choice could not be clearer: believe or perish (John 3:16); repent or perish (Luke 13:3,5). The minority is on the narrow road that leads to life; the majority is on the broad road that leads to destruction (Matt. 7:13-14).

Every person is either indwelt by the Holy Spirit, or he does not belong to God at all (Rom. 8:9). Every sinner has either been quickened or made alive in Christ or is still dead in sins (Eph. 2:1-5). The sinner either has his sins forgiven, or he has his sins retained (Eph. 1:7; John 20:23). Every person either has an endless hope (Tit. 1:2) or a hopeless end (Prov. 11:7).

Every individual will have an eternal home prepared by God or will suffer in the place prepared for the devil and his angels (John 14:3; Matt. 25:41).

Which camp are you a part of? Everyone is invited to be part of the glorious company of the redeemed (Rev. 22:17).

† Dear friend, do you know for sure which group you are in? †

~George Zeller: www.middletonbiblechurch.org